

TACHC Quality Axis

The Quality Axis program supports health centers in their efforts to apply and institutionalize quality improvement (QI) strategies for Increasing Access, Efficiencies (workflows), and Quality of Care.

Quality Axis guides improvement of chronic disease management and outcomes, with patient-centered and staff-supportive care. Cohort 2022-23 will focus on reducing rates of poorly-controlled diabetes in participating health centers.

Interested?
Click here to let us know

Customizable

3 levels of participation to meet each health center and learner's needs

Coaching

12 structured sessions provide problem-solving help and accountability

Learning Sessions

4 two-day in-person events to apply learning and plan improvements

Webinars

4 webinars featuring best practices in chronic care management

eLearning

4 self-paced online courses on Quality Axis and QI methodology

Assignments

Tools, resources and assignments to keep teams organized and on-track

May 2022

Getting Started

Teams begin coaching sessions, complete assessments, and eLearning

July 2022

Learning Session 1: Quality Axis Institute

Learners review the key concepts of QI and system transformation

October 2022

Learning Session 2: Planning & Testing

Teams begin applying QI strategies in their health centers

January 2023

Learning Session 3: Analysis & Action

Teams continue to work towards their QI goals and address barriers

April 2023

Learning Session 4: Making it Stick

Teams institutionalize improvements and begin to tell their story

May 2023

Final Showcase

Teams share their improvement outcomes